

JFE Mineral Period (2004 to Present)

2004

Jul. JFE Mineral Co., Ltd. was established as the result of the merger between Kawatetsu Mining Co., Ltd. and Kokan Mining Co., Ltd.
Head Office location: Kuramae, Taito Ward, Tokyo
KKA changed name to JFE Mineral (Australia) Proprietary Limited (JFEMA) as a result of a merger

2005

Dec. Establishment of PMSC, a wholly owned subsidiary

2006

Jul. Head Office relocated to Shiba, Minato Ward, Tokyo

2007

Jan. Took ownership of Awano Saiseiki Co., Ltd.

2008

Jun. Changed name of Steel Bell Machines to JFE Belltech

2009

Jul. Started operations of Takizawa Mine through Naro Mining Co., Ltd.

2010

Jul. Established JFE Rockfiber Corporation as a wholly owned subsidiary

May Established Visayas Slaked Lime Corp. (VSLC) as a wholly owned overseas subsidiary in the Philippines

Apr. Started manufacturing and selling positive electrode material for secondary batteries

2011

Oct. Established JFE Belltech Co., Ltd. as a wholly owned subsidiary

2012

Apr. Established JFE Mineral Co., Ltd. as a wholly owned subsidiary of JFE Steel Corporation

2013

Oct. Started operation of the VSLC Taganito Plant

Jun. Established Mineral Brasil Pesquisas e Desenvolvimento Ltda. (MBPD) as a wholly owned subsidiary in Brazil

Apr. Started manufacturing and selling piezoelectric single crystals

2015

Feb. Reached cumulative production of 10,000 tons of ultra-fine nickel powder

2017

Apr. Absorbed Naro Mining Co., Ltd. in merger and opened Aomori Mining Works

Kawatetsu Mining Period

(1958-2004)

1958

Jul. Establishment of Kawatetsu Mining Co., Ltd.

Kokan Mining Period

(1949-2004)

1949

Mar. Establishment of Kokan Mining Co., Ltd.